

When you get into a serious relationship and marry, you have stars in your eyes and believe nothing will change. But then life intervenes and chronic illness affects one or both of you and what happens? Your focus suddenly changes. Your Christian marriage or relationship loses its Godly focus as your gaze shifts from upwards to Him to back downward to you. Knowing Christ Ministries provides the vehicle to examine this challenge. This book provides an introspective journey for both the spouse or partner caught in a relationship where chronic illness has taken up residence. One goal is to let both partners know they are not alone in their pain or conflicting thoughts. The other goal is to demonstrate the difference in relationships when Christ is the focus than when it is not. The final chapters in the workbook help foster instructions to couples on how to gain or regain their Godly focus.
